

Bernard of Clairvaux	On Loving God By Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153) On Loving God is one of the best-known and most influential works of Medieval Christian mysticism. Written at the request of one of the cardinals of Rome, it describes the four “levels” of love for God, and puts Christian devotion in the context of God’s love for mankind.
